

Bike Baltimore!

BALTIMORE BICYCLE MASTER PLAN SURVEY RESULTS 2005

Over 300 individuals responded to the Bike Master Plan Survey on paper and through the internet. The following are compiled results to select questions from the survey.

Based on your experience which Baltimore streets are best for bicycling?

1. Falls Rd
2. Pratt AND Charles
3. Roland AND Guilford

Which Baltimore streets are worst for bicycling?

1. Charles
2. Pratt
3. St. Paul

What are the best off-street routes (paved trails or sidewalks) in Baltimore?

1. Jones Falls Trail AND Inner Harbor
2. Gwynns Falls Trail
3. North Central Rail Trail AND Fort McHenry

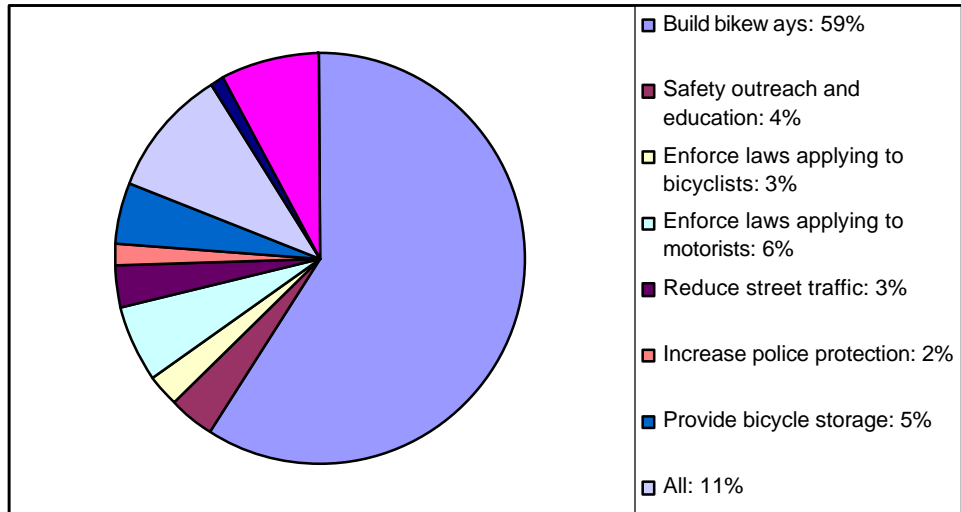

On which streets would you like to see bicycle lanes or other bicycle facilities?

1. Charles
2. Pratt
3. St. Paul

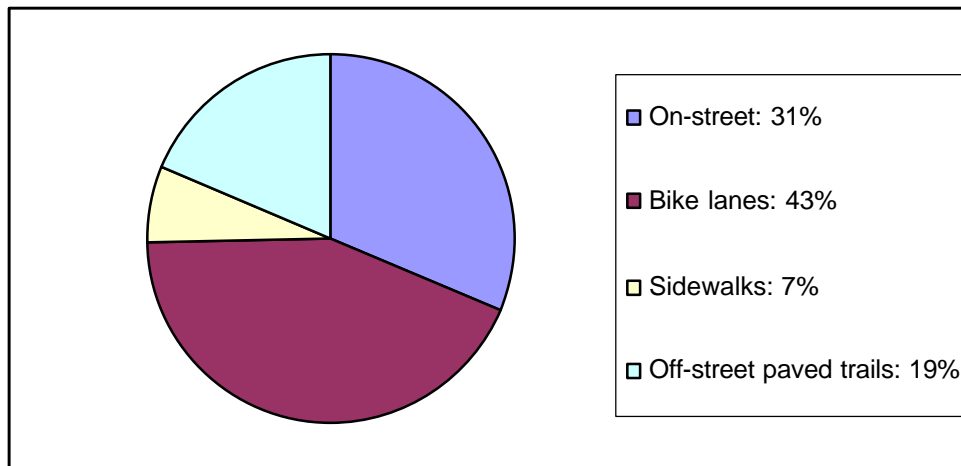

At which locations would you like to see additional bicycle parking (racks or lockers) provided?

Canton (8)
Harbor (7)
Charles Village tied with JHU-generally (6)

Which of the following factors do you think would do the most to encourage bicycling in the City of Baltimore?

When making a bicycle trip which of the following do you prefer to use?

What was the primary purpose of your last bicycle trip?

